

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

BUREAU OF THE MINT

Washington, October 18, 1899.

Robert J. Thompson,

Secretary, Lafayette Memorial Commission,

Chicago, Illinois.

Sir:

Replying to your favor of October 16th, I would say that I know of no reason why the coins should not be struck this year if it is possible to do so. I told a reporter the other day that in view of the delay occasioned by changing the plans of the monument I thought it improbable that they would be out this year. I have not, however, conferred recently with the Philadelphia Mint about it and you may be better informed as to their progress than I.

Very truly yours,

Geo. E. Roberts

Director of the Mint.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
BUREAU OF THE MINT
Washington,

October 18, 1899.

Robert J. Thompson,
Secretary, Lafayette Memorial Commission,
Chicago, Illinois.

Sir:

Replying to your favor of October 16th, I would say that I know of no reason why the coins should not be struck this year if it is possible to do so. I told a reporter the other day that in view of the delay occasioned by changing the plans of the monument I thought it improbable that they would be out this year. I have not, however, conferred recently with the Philadelphia Mint about it and you may be better informed as to their progress than I.

Very truly yours,
Geo. E. Roberts
Director of the Mint.